

You can count on me when you're under pressure.

GasTaxi drivers like Steve Coogan know that you sometimes need help fast. Armed with local knowledge, you can be sure they're just a phone call away.

If you need cylinder gas in a hurry, Steve Coogan's your man. He operates an Air Products GasTaxi: it could be the one near you.

GasTaxis are an integral part of our extensive delivery network. With over 400 outlets, it's now the largest in the UK and Ireland.

Your local outlet offers the full spectrum of welding gases, including our new high-performance Maxx™ range.

We'll ensure you get the right gas, often within three hours.

Unless of course you're in a real fix, then you can rely on someone like Steve.

Why not call us on 0800 3890202 (UK) or 01 4566526 (Republic of Ireland), or visit our website.
