

Project Overview

- Air Products proposes to build and operate a helium extraction facility north of the Doe Canyon Compression Station
- Helium is in the CO₂ stream that is currently processed at the compressor station
- Air Products will remove the helium from the CO₂ and return the CO₂ to the pipeline
- Helium will be liquefied for transport in tanker trucks
- Proposed schedule

Dolores County Planning Commission Public Hearing

August 26, 2013

Board of County Commissioners Public Hearing

October 2013

Construction Begins

October 2013

Helium Production Begins

April 2015

tell me more

